PHAIDON

Aufberg 1113, Bruck

Around a four-hour drive from Vienna, close to the resort town of Zell am See in the Hohe Tauern mountain range, Aufberg 1113 opened in 2008 as an offshoot of Taxhof, a traditional guesthouse located on a nearby peak. For panoramic views and design as clean as the mountain air, it's hard to beat. Taxhof's owner, Berta Unterberger, commissioned regular guest, Munich-based architect Andreas Meck, to create two apartments, giving him carte blanche in the design. Meck chose concrete and local wood to create two 'nests', adding Alpine details such as loden-covered seating, oak furniture and a communal sauna. The upper property boasts the best views, with its wall of windows opening onto a terrace (above). Book well ahead. Hundsdorf 15, Bruck, T 043 6545 6261, www.taxhof.at
